this week toward aiding numer-ous local institutions now in need of funds owing to the great drain Mrs. Alfred Kessler and Mrs. William occasioned by war relief which left Barbour, hospitals and homes in stress. As part of a campaign to raise $25,000 for a new community house in conjunction of Mrs. Lewis Gouverneur Morris, a committee for dancing, which consists of Mrs. Herbert C. Pell, Jr., with the Lenox Hill Settlement, there Mrs. W. Whitewright Watson, Mrs. will be held a monster rummage sale at 723 Fifth avenue, beginning on Tuesday and lasting throughout the line Knapp, Geraldine Adee, Elizabeth Mrs. R. that predominates that section. The managers hope to make many good American citizens. The establishment of a night school has helped to a great degree. In the afternoon sessions at settlement house girls are taught leaftting, cooking, singing, painting and cramatics, and there is a class for corrective speech, and an hour is given to story telling. For boys there are athletic games, a gymnasium, band and orchestra, and it is interesting to relate that some of the clubrooms outside the settlement house now in use for clubs and classes, formerly were corner saloons. A milk station is sustained by members and when the community house is completed the upper ors will serve as a nursery and roof garden for bables and small children. Among those on the executive committee acting with Mrs. Penn Smith are Mrs. Paul Dougherty, Mrs. Julius C. Bernheim, Mrs. James F. Curtis, Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, Miss Virginia Furman, Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr., Mrs. James Lloyd Derby, Mrs. Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., Mrs. Harold I. Pratt and Mrs. Monroe Douglas Robinson.

Among the members of the general committee are Mmes. Edward J. Bervind, E. Farrar Bateson, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Arthur DuBols, Harry Content, George Crawford Clark, Harry Payne Whitney, P. J. Casey, George Draper, Robert L. Gerry, Daniel P. Hays, Oliver Iselin, Jesse I. Straus, Paul M. Herrog, E. Henry Harriman, William G. Lyle, H. Irving Miller, William G. Popper, R. J. Stern, H. Huebner and Edith Pratt. Mrs. Straus will be in charge of the cashier's desk and Mrs. Landon K. Thorne of the furniture department. ments will be Mrs. Samuel S. Auchincloss, Miss Georgia Appleton, Miss Mary Martin, Mrs. Thomas Frothingham and Mrs. Wendell Blagden. Mrs. Lydig Hoyt will look after the cos es and Mrs. Paul Dougherty will self the jewels, which will be exposed on a table covered with black velvet.

As the close of the winter season approaches society women who have practiced frugality during the war becin to think of summer clothes, but also remember the help which winter garments may be to destitute Allies overseas. With this in mind the special clothing committee of the Serbian Ald Fund, of which Mme. Slavko Groultch, the American wife of the Minister from the new kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, is honorary chairman, set to-morrow for the openfootwear for the relief of Serbian suf- at the Colony Club, and at Sherry's.
